attempt. If your proposed record title is similar to the one we already have in the UNIQUE WORLD RECORDS database, we encourage you to break the existing record instead of approving a similar title. Unique World Records only recognises WORLD records. UNIQUE WORLD RECORDS do not verify national / country-specific records.

HOW DO I KNOW ABOUT THE EXISTING RECORD I WANT TO BREAK?

Current world records are enlisted with details on our website, www.uniqueworldrecords.com, where you can search your desired keywords, describing the title, you will find the existing record details.

IF I'M NOT SUCCESSFUL THIS TIME, CAN I RE-ATTEMPT THE RECORD?

Yes, of course, you must APPLY through a fresh application for your reattempt, as your previous application was rejected for being unsuccessful. UNIQUE WORLD RECORDS welcome and encourage you to reattempt the record. Many applications regularly challenging the records are received by us.

DO THE RECORD TITLES HAVE ANY RULES & GUIDELINES?

Yes, of course, the set of rules and guidelines plays a vital role in the process of achieving a world record. There are two types of guidelines viz. General Guidelines and Record Specific Guidelines. A complete list of rules is also sent to every applicant, but the rules and guidelines are non-exhaustive and UNIQUE WORLD RECORDS do not offer any guarantee or warranty of making your attempt risk free. UNIQUE WORLD RECORDS advise you to get expert help and proper safety equipment before attempting a record involving risk for you or anyone else. Rules and Guidelines are sent to every applicant at an appropriate time.

WHAT IS EXISTING / NEW TITLE CHECK OPTION ON THE TITLE CHECK APPLICATION?

To Set/Break or Submit a record, at the time of application, applicants need to choose the title option namely Existing Title and New Title Option.
